Rescue Truck Funds Rapidly Soar Upward

Donations Have Only Started, Chairman Stearns Reports

Impressed by the potential value of a Red Cross rescue truck in the lakes region, where an inflow of vacationists and visitors presents a constant risk of accidents, residents of Antioch and nearby communities are enthusiastically giving their support to the fund being raised here for the purchase of such a truck.

James Stearns, chairman of the committee in charge of donations, reports that small sums have been coming almost hourly. While the amounts given have not, as a rule, been very large in any one instance, public endorsement of the drive appears to be general.

The plan of the Antioch Red Cross rescue squad to continue its policy of answering all emergency calls also appears to be meeting with much favor, particularly in nearby communities which face similar accident hazards.

Mrs. Josephine Vos, Mother of Antioch Residents, Dies

Passes Away at Home in Burlington, Wis., at Age of 76

Friends of the members of the Vos family in Antioch learned with regret of the death of Mrs. Josephine Vos, 76, Friday.

Services were held in St. Mary's church, Burlington, Monday morning at 9 o'clock, with many from Antioch in attendance. Burial was in the St. Mary's cemetery.

Mrs. Vos, a life long resident of Burlington, where she lived at 523 McHenry street, had been in fair health until January 6, when she became ill with pneumonia.

Death Unexpected

She was believed to be recovering, and her condition was reported as considerably improved, when her death occurred from a sudden heart attack.

A son, Edmund Vos, of Antioch, who had been vacationing in California, was called back by word of her serious illness, and arrived here Sunday by plane.

Two other sons, Roman and Cleitus Vos, also of Antioch, and three daughters, Mrs. Stanley Sydowski and Mrs. Henry Oldenberg of Burlington, and Mrs. George Fieriesen of Minneapolis, also survive, as well as several grandchildren.

A son, Herbert J. Vos, former president of the Antioch Lumber and Coal company, preceded her in death about two years ago.

A brother of Mrs. Vos, Henry Plate, is a resident of San Diego, Calif.

Lake County Holsteins in "All American Herd"

Two Lake county Holstein breeders, Ravenglen Farms at Antioch, and Hawthorn Farms, Libertyville, have been honored by the selection of members of their herds for the 18th annual All-American Holstein herd by a committee of 17 eminent dairy cattle judges of United States and Canada.

The awards have just been announced. King Bessie Senator, herd sire at Ravenglen, owned by E. H. Ravengroft, president of Abbott Laboratories, was chosen All-American two-year-old bull, the third successive year this animal has won the coveted All-American distinction. Another member of the Ravenglen herd was given honorable mention.

At Hawthorn Farms, Libertyville, the honors went to Hawthorn Blue Eye Empress, chosen as the Reserve All-American heifer calf of the year.

Three other members of the herd received honorable mention. Hawthorn Farms are owned by J. F. Cuneo, president of the Cuneo Press in Chicago.

Ninety-two animals were nominated for consideration, all of them winners at state, sectional or national dairy shows in United States, or Class A shows in Canada. Fifteen animals, making up a complete show herd, with one entry in each class, were selected for the All-American herd, and the 15 second-choice animals are the reserve herd. Forty-six others were given honorable mention.

Big Farm Meet Will Be Held Here March 6

Hackelman, of U. of Ill., Will Address Farmers' Gathering in Antioch

March 6 has been set for Antioch's big farm meet when problems concerning the farmer's seed and soil fertility needs will be discussed at the Antioch Township High school.

The afternoon will be devoted entirely to a symposium on hybrid corn production. The latest facts concerning that subject will be brought forth under the capable Extension Crop specialist, Prof. J. C. Hackelman, of the University of Illinois.

Commercial Exhibits

Commercial exhibits will be on display and a Shelled Corn show for Lake County farmers will be held. All farmers are urged to get a peck of shelled corn ready. It will be judged according to corn market standards.

The evening program will be devoted to motion pictures, a talk by Prof. Hackelman, entertainment, and the awarding of prizes won at the corn show.

Hybrid seed growers, fertilizer dealers, and farmers who wish to exhibit their grain or small seed samples are asked to communicate with C. L. Kutil, Vocational Agriculture instructor at Antioch High school, who is general chairman of the meeting.

Boat and Sport Show Will Open in Chicago

To sports lovers in the Antioch and nearby communities each year comes the perennial urge to plan for the out-of-door season. About that time another hardy perennial—the National Boat and Sport show—appears on the scene. This year the famous exposition, playing its 11th straight annual run, will be better, bigger and earlier than before. The new dates are February 3 to 11 inclusive, as announced by Hubbard H. Erickson, manager.

Include two Saturday and two Sundays, giving everyone an opportunity to get to Navy Pier several times if desired.

From the small exposition of boats in 1928, the show has expanded until today the entire length of the exhibition hall on the Pier is utilized and about 120 exhibitors will display their best brain children to interest and attract the sports-loving public. It is a show of action too, with amateur sports being participated in by hundreds of visitors and thousands more taking an eager interest in the demonstrations of skill.

The great out-of-doors states of Minnesota (including the Arrowhead association) Wisconsin, Michigan and Illinois, are arranging unusual exhibits at the Pier which will include the showing of much wild life—from bears and deer down to "birds of plumage" and rabbits. These states will have special days starting with Illinois Day, Sunday, February 4th. Governors and other officials of the state always visit the Pier.

Beautiful models wearing the latest costumes for swimming, fishing, hunting, skiing, archery and other sports will make personal appearances each day and evening of the show, and the Queen of the Great Lakes will be selected during the event from among the fair sex members of the Chicago area yachting clubs.

There will be fly and bait casting, rifle and pistol shooting and the newly popular rifle and skeet shooting, as well as golf ball driving and other sports.

The exhibit of boats has grown each year until this year more than 35 manufacturers will have the latest models ranging from giant cabin cruisers down to kayaks on display.

Federated Christian Group to Meet in Zion

The next meeting of the Older Young People's society, recently given the name of "Federated Christian Youth," will be held at the Methodist Church in Zion, on Monday evening, February 5.

Miss Kathleen Hubbard of Libertyville, president of the organization, will lead the discussion, entitled, "Each in His Own Tongue."

Clarence Henry of North Prairie will be in charge of recreation for the evening.

The organization is steadily growing. Forty-two young people from all parts of Lake county attended the last tour. Everyone is welcome.

Only Mystery of Season Announced by Rotnour Troupe

Their only mystery play of the season, "The Vulture," will be given by the J. B. Rotnour players Thursday evening on the stage of the Crystal theater.

Besides its "spooky" happenings, the production contains a number of comedy moments, said to be ably handled by Jimmy LeRoy.

Last Thursday evening's presentation, the farce, "His Temporary Wife," was one of the most amusing the troupe has given this season and drew an appreciative response.

Next week the troupe is to give "Scrambled Love," a comedy-drama. Some new faces will be seen in the cast, "J. B." promises, and there will also be vaudeville specialties.

He adds: "If you want to enjoy a rare treat in clean-cut theatrical entertainment, by a capable company, secure your free merchant tickets from Antioch business concerns listed in our advertisement elsewhere in this issue of the Antioch News."

Diminishing Returns

Those who have to run their own businesses, and who try to earn a living therefrom, know all about the law of diminishing returns. But government is only gradually learning that the principle involved has its application to taxing measures, too. It is beginning to become plain that when "hidden taxes"—the ones concealed in the price of products—become too high, people buy less and the total yield may prove to be less than was the case when the rate was lower.

The New York Post, commenting on the cigarette tax in its home state, brings this point to the attention of its readers.

The pyramid of taxes on New Yorkers' cigarettes is serving one useful purpose," the Post philosophizes. "It is demonstrating, better than has any other tax in years, all the varieties of trouble that can be caused by imposing levies heavier than traffic can bear.

Retail dealers are losing customers by the droves. Purchasers of cigarettes are being annoyed and, in many cases, cutting down on their expenditures. Yields from the tax are much below expectations.

"Everybody is losing and the gain to the city and State treasuries seems likely to be scant. There may even be a loss.

"The State tax defeated itself. Economists call this 'the law of diminishing returns.'"

Going Places

They're getting together "down on the farm."

The get-together in question involves the fast-growing agricultural marketing cooperative movement—the most significant in the farm history of our time.

Already the movement has improved prices in many instances, broadened and stabilized markets, dealt with all manner of problems affecting agriculture, and served the consumer by helping assure him of a constant supply of first-class farm products at a fair price.

Those who have watched the movement have been little short of amazed by its achievements in a few brief years. And it is going places faster all the time.

A Lot of Counting

Counting at the rate of 150 a minute for 40 hours a week, beginning when America was discovered, it would take a man until 2603 A. D. to count $20,500,000,000—the cost of relief/in America since 1932.

Did It Speed Recovery?

In 1937 Congress enacted a law empowering a New Deal agency to fix minimum coal prices.

Since then the agency has spent approximately $3,000,000 a year.

It has built up a payroll numbering some 1,400 persons.

It has taken 12,000,000 words of testimony as a basis for its price determinations.

It has examined two box cars full of exhibits of one kind or another.

And no prices are expected to be announced before April 15, 1940, with the practical certainty that any announcement will provoke a storm of disapproval and protest from many coal operators and probably consumers generally.

Did it speed recovery?

Forgotten Promise

From the Democratic national platform of June, 1932:

"We advocate an immediate and drastic reduction of governmental expenditures . . . to accomplish a saving of not less than 25 per cent in the cost of Federal Government" and "maintenance of the national credit by a Federal budget annually balanced . . ."

From Senator Tydings (D.) of Maryland, on Nov. 23, 1939:

"We must begin now to approach the day when we spend less than we take in."

Where have we been in these seven and one-half years in the interim, and what is the reason for having to "begin now to approach" the start of that which was an "immediate" proposition in 1932?

Broke at Sixty-five

The majority of men who have money at 35 are stone broke at 65! Business failures, bad investments, illness and other unexpected catastrophes tell the tragic story!

The majority of these men could have enjoyed financially independent old ages, instead of having to depend on charity or the bounty of relatives—had they put aside money at the time when earning power was at its height, in some plan such as those offered by life insurance.

Only charity can help the indigent old whose savings have disappeared. We can witness these pitiful examples—and guide our own course accordingly.

INSTALLMENT BUYING

SUBJECT AT HICKORY UNIT MEETING FRIDAY

"Is Installment Buying Intelligent Buying?" was the question asked by Mrs. Helen Volk Johnson, Lake county home adviser, at a meeting of Hickory Home Bureau unit Friday afternoon. The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Ellsworth Fox.

"It is easier to borrow than to pay; to lend than to collect," was the general consensus of opinion following a discussion on such topics as "What Is Installment Buying?" "How Easy Are Easy Payments?" and "The Advantages and Disadvantages of Installment Buying."

A good rule, the gathering agreed, is: "Credit may be used in obtaining those types of equipment that will most frequently and effectively conserve the time, energy and other family resources without creating unnecessary financial risk or loss to the family."

Reports on the recent "Farm and Home Week" were given by Mrs. Fox and Mrs. O. L. Raether.

The unit's next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Floy Dixon.

COUNTY SEAT NEWS

The possibility of removing street car tracks and installing a bus system between Waukegan and North Chicago is being considered. North Shore Line officials met with city officials of Waukegan and with those of North Chicago last week to discuss legalities involved.

Officers elected at the fifteenth annual Waukegan-North Chicago Real Estate board banquet include L. J. Yager, president; Oscar Soderquist, vice-president; Harry Lange, secretary-treasurer; L. Elmer Hulse and James W. Fulton, directors.

"An object loomed ahead and jolted my car," but he didn't know he had struck anyone until he put his car in the garage and found the right headlight torn off, the right fender dented, and the front license plate missing. John F. Gantor of Waukegan told police when he went back to the Fort Sheridan entrance on Route 42 to investigate. Louis Alvisi, Highwood laborer who was critically injured when struck by the automobile, was placed in the Fort Sheridan hospital. The missing license plate had been found lying beside him.

Fire believed to have been started from an overheated furnace in the basement caused damages amounting to $20,000 to the First Christian church, Clayton and Utica streets, last Thursday night. Reports that the blaze was the work of the pyromaniac who has set 14 fires in the city since last September are discredited by Fire Chief Adolph Francke.

Snake Bite Antidotes

Veteran Prospector Strikes Pay Dirt

Maj. Graham C. Dugas, veteran prospector, examines samples of "pay rock" from his bonanza gold strike at Dahlonega, Ga. Wiseacres didn't believe there was gold in the Georgia uplands, but the major uncovered a vein of quartz two inches thick and assaying $60,000 to the ton—comparable to the world-famed Comstock lode of Nevada. Right: Dugas points out the rich vein to a friend.

Russia Trains Women
Young Russian peasant women are being taught to drive tractors and otherwise fit themselves to replace men in the event of an emergency. Thousands of men are undergoing spare time military training.

IMPROVED
UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL
SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D.
Dean of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for February 4

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

HOLDING LIFE SACRED

LESSON TEXT—Genesis 1:27-31; I Corinthians 6:18, 20; II Corinthians 6:16-7:1.
GOLDEN TEXT—Ye are bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body.—I Corinthians 6:20.

Moral action and right living can only be assured on the basis of right thinking. If our principles are right, our action will be sure and our life will be steady. Fundamental in our consideration of temperate living is a right understanding of life itself. Where did we come from? Whom do we resemble? What are the ruling forces in life? To whom do we belong? If he gets these matters straight, any honest man will come right in his life decisions.

I. Man Was Created in the Image of God (Gen. 1:27-31).

"God created man"—so says Scripture, and all the forces of infidelity and unbelief have not been able to break down that simple statement. The creation story of Genesis stands and will stand. Let no critic of God's Word, no spinner of human philosophies, however plausible, take that assurance from you.

The important point for our lesson is the fact that God created man in His own image; in other words, made him an intelligent, moral and spiritual being. It takes a very gullible person indeed to believe the theory (which, by the way, has never been proved) that man has evolved from some elementary substance by way of the animal into his present high estate. Man came from the hand of God ready to take dominion over the earth (vv. 23-30), able to name all the animals (Gen. 2:19, 20), and above all, capable of fellowship with God. Little wonder that God declared His creation with man as its crown to be "very good" (1:31).

Remember that you are God's creation and that you bear His likeness and you will have a high regard for your life. You will guard it, develop it, and above all you will commit it in glad surrender to God through Jesus Christ.

II. The Believer Is Indwelt by the Holy Spirit (I Cor. 6:19, 20).

Redemption at the great price of Jesus' blood not only makes the believer belong to God (v. 20), but also makes his body the temple of the Holy Spirit. When the child of God grasps that truth, his attitude toward his body and toward his life which it bears is revolutionized. Since the third person of the blessed Trinity dwells in me, I will not abuse, neglect, or misuse my body. I will not take it to places where the indwelling Spirit would not go. I will not use it or any of its members to do anything which does not honor God. On the other hand, I will yield it without delay and without reservation to the Holy Spirit and count on Him to empower and use it for God's glory.

The writer wishes to bear testimony that when this truth laid hold of him, even years after he was converted, it changed his whole life. It can do the same for every Christian who reads these lines. And what about the unbeliever? He can accept Christ right now and at once the Holy Spirit will indwell him too. Why not?

III. The Believer Should Live a Separated Life (II Cor. 6:16-7:1).

We have fallen upon evil days when it seems to be assumed by Christian people that only certain individuals in the Church are called to a life of separation from worldliness. Men seem to say, "The preacher? Of course! The deacon? Oh, yes! The elders? Yes! The trustees? Well, not necessarily. Church members? Well, some do and some don't." It is felt that it is just a matter of choice or of disposition, and that the failure to live such a separated life is really no reflection on one's spirituality.

That erroneous view must have come directly from the devil himself. Christian man or woman, will you listen to Satan or to God's Word? Read again II Corinthians 6:16, 17. Note the blessed promise in verse 18, and then heed the admonition in 7:1: "Dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God." As Christians, our response to such an admonition should be immediate and complete.

The command and the invitation are to you, Christian friend. If you will respond, there will be a revival in your own heart, and if all those who read these lines will respond to God's invitation and admonition, there will be a revival in thousands of churches all over America this week. Why not?

Information Bureau for Truck Operators Formed

The office of District No. 2, Division of Motor Carriers, comprising Lake, McHenry, Boone, DuPage and Kane counties, has been opened in the building of State Police headquarters at Dundee and Congdon avenue in Elgin, Ill. The men placed in charge are J. C. Weiland, of Aurora; Jack B. Ewing and Joseph L. Mull, of Waukegan, and Thomas H. Dwyer of Joliet.

Information and assistance in preparing application blanks, desired by all those owning and operating trucks on the highways of the State to comply with the requirements of the Illinois Truck act, approved in July, 1939, are now available at this office.

As rapidly as possible, meetings of truck operators will be arranged at convenient points in these counties, where explanations will be made and forms distributed by one, or other, or these men.

All motor carriers are required to make choice of their classification, in conformity with their line of operations, which they desire to carry on. By far the larger number of carriers will qualify under a few classes, which can be easily determined by conference with the personnel at the office, or elsewhere in the district.

It is particularly desired that truck operators know that there will be no charge whatever made by the district office for information, forms, or other service to them. Inquiries by mail may be addressed to the district office at the address above. Telephone No. Elgin 7026, has been installed.

Joseph L. Mull, registrar, will be at the Lake county courthouse beginning this week. Motor carriers are invited to consult him, he announces.

Deaf-Mute Airplane Pilot Visits Antioch

Antioch was host to an unusual visitor last week when Ralph K. Bradford, 38, deaf mute pilot who is making a 100,000 mile journey all over the world to gain material for a book he plans to publish, made a short stay in the village.

"My travels have carried me into many nations," Bradford stated. "I have worked as a deck hand on ships to Cuba, Hawaii, Alaska, France, England, Germany, the Panama Canal zone, and, besides 28 cross-country jaunts, I have visited Mexico and Canada." Bradford is one of the few deaf-mutes who have obtained pilot's licenses.

Antioch is the 4,906th city he has visited. He came upstate in 9 and 20 below zero weather from Danville, Ill., after spending the holidays at his home in Indianapolis. From here he planned to go on to Elgin, Woodstock, Rockford and then into Wisconsin. His airplane, a small Aerocar cub ship with a 90 horsepower engine, unsuited to thin winter air, is being stored at Bendix Field airport, South Bend, Ind., until spring. He plans to resume his travels by air in March or April.

Last year, Bradford stated, he made 1,900 miles by air over Illinois, Wisconsin, Indiana and Minnesota, from April to November.

Before the wild west became tame—An exciting incident occurred on the east bound Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern fast mail near Carlyle. A cowboy enroute from Texas to New York city engaged in a game of cards with two strangers and lost $200. He detected the two men manipulating the cards, and producing a pair of revolvers demanded that his money be returned. It was surrendered.

All private taps along the line of the Waukesha pipe line have been turned off owing to a number of leaks along the line and the demand for water in Chicago. Those who have heretofore enjoyed the privilege of having Waukesha water on tap in their homes and places of business will henceforth have to content themselves with ordinary well water.

The matter of raising funds to build an addition to the Lake county courthouse is to be brought up at the next meeting of the board of supervisors.

Miss Grace Gullidge became the wife of William Griffin on Wednesday morning of this week in St. Joseph's Catholic church of Waukegan. History repeats itself:

London, Jan. 28—At a special meeting Sunday the representatives of the Balkan states at the peace conference decided that negotiations looking to a settlement of the Turko-Bulgarian war, which have been pursuing their desultory way toward final disagreement for more than a month, should be broken off at once. This decision means a resumption of the war. Adding to the general terror, a heavy earthquake shook the Turkish capitol.

Shipwrecks Missing

New Zealand has a shipwrecks society and no shipwrecks. It was disclosed by the Shipwrecks Relief Society that money is accumulating in the bank for want of disaster. The society obtains its finances from the shipping companies and the harbor boards of this country, all of which make an annual contribution. Year by year the funds grow larger. Now they stand at $80,000 and are safely invested. This has resulted in the society now receiving more than it spends. The position is regarded with satisfaction by local governments, it seems. Mayor Arthur H. Allen of Dunedin has said:

"It is gratifying to know this money has been invested in gilt edged securities."

Britain Loses World Sympathy Through Harsh War Measures; U. S., Japan Protest Sea Action

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

LOTHIAN

There is trouble in the Lowlands and Rumania, too.

GREAT BRITAIN: U. S. Trouble

IF U. S. public opinion once favored the British against Germany, it had shifted by late January until most Americans looked with equal disdain on both sides. Reason: British interference with American shipping, seizure of mail and refusal to recognize the 300-mile neutrality zone thrown around the Western hemisphere. To make it worse, all protests by Secretary of State Cordell Hull had been rejected peremptorily, until finally Mr. Hull slapped back with an aide memoire. Its gist: That U. S. vessels were being held up by the contraband control three times as long as Italian ships, therefore the U. S. could charge discrimination. There was every sign that this protest, like others, would be rejected. In Washington British Ambassador Lord Lothrop saw unhappy times ahead.

Indian Trouble

MOHANDAS K. GANDHI's independence demands for India broke into print when Britain began demanding war assistance from the empire. Lord Linlithgow, viceroy, thought after the war would be time enough to talk about Indian independence. This provoked a storm of protest, but Gandhi cautiously urged a non-violence campaign. Lord Linlithgow, relieved, was willing to discuss terms. But he was still playing with dynamite.

Japanese Trouble

ALREADY irked because Britain has been friendly with China's "rebel" Gen. Chiang Kai-shek, Japan's ire was heightened when a British warship stopped a Jap passenger vessel in the Pacific, removing 21 German merchant sailors bearing returned to the Reich via Russia. Next day Tokyo gave British Ambassador Sir Robert L. Craigie a note demanding amends, calling the incident an "unfriendly act" and warning that repetition would aggravate Japan's anti-British sentiment. Next day, when a British vessel halted Japan's Tatua Maru, Ambassador Craigie found thousand of Japs milling around his embassy, while the press bleated against his country.

Lowland Trouble

WHEN Winston Churchill made a speech demanding that Netherlands and Belgium join the allies in fighting Germany, the press and government of these countries shouted angrily. To placate them without losing Britain's point, Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain next spoke, saying Britain was ready to help Belgium, but would reserve the right to decide when help was needed. Far from placating the neutrals, this speech only irritated them more. In the Netherlands all parties joined in telling Britain to keep quiet. In Belgium it was loudly proclaimed that the government can decide for itself when and if it needs help.

Rumanian Trouble

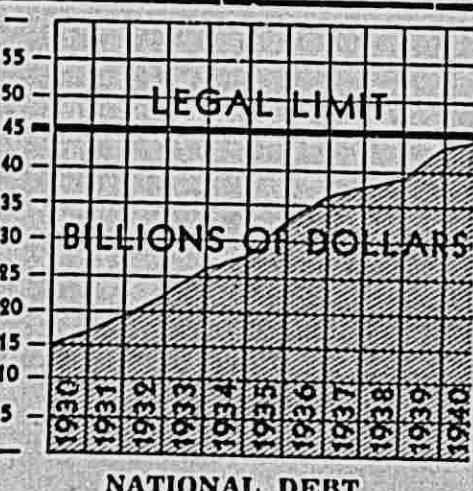

KING CAROL of Rumania has remained cautiously neutral despite British wooing. But in mid-January, when German troops were reported occupying the southern part of Russia, Poland and the British struck again, confident Carol would accept their aid gratefully. Instead they got the shock of their lives: Pressed by Germany to fulfill oil contracts, Rumania clung to neutrality and balked at British-French oil firms operating there. She insisted they provide their share of petroleum to help Rumania fulfill her contracts with Germany, thus providing oil to run Nazi planes to bomb English-French territory!

CONGRESS: Yes, but—

"Do I think the budget should be balanced? Yes. Do I think expenditures should be cut down? Yes. Do I think taxes should be increased? Yes. But if you say, 'Morgenthau, what kind of taxes should there be?' I cannot answer that because I do not know."

This apparently frank recitation from the secretary of the treasury was no more than he had promised several months earlier, yet it made big headlines. On budget-balancing and decreased expenditures he probably was more outspoken than the President, but not on new taxes. Never has any administration spokesman suggested what kind of levies congress should enact this session, and Henry Morgenthau's statement before the house appropriations committee failed to clarify matters.

Biggest news was Mr. Morgenthau's contention that the federal debt limit should be hiked five billion dollars above the present $45,000,000 mark with which it is now flirting dangerously (see graph). He remarked that there was "no particular danger involved" in this act, but his audience apparently thought otherwise. Trimming desperately, congress lopped $11,491,000 from the treasury-postoffice supply bill, bringing it to $128,143,300 the reductions from administration estimates already in the mill. With enough such reductions congress hopes to avoid both new taxes and boost in the debt limit.

Also in congress:

¶ To aid Finland without taking responsibility, the senate banking and currency committee rigged up a "finesse formula" to increase the Export-Import bank's revolving fund by $100,000,000. Still to be adopted by congress, the measure would let Jesse Jones give Finland an extra $20,000,000 for non-military purchases. However, since only a third of the present $10,000,000 loan has been used, Banker Jones doubted whether Finland would be interested. Reason: The Finns want munitions, not food and clothing.

¶ In the house ways and means committee, pros and cons continued fighting over the reciprocal trade act, which expires June 1. A breach in agricultural opinion was evidenced when Farm Bureau President Edward O'Neal testified for the trade program while National Grange Master L. J. Taber spoke against it.

¶ The house voted Rep. Martin Dies of Texas $75,000 for his committee investigating un-Americanism.

¶ North Dakota's G. O. P. Sen. Gerald P. Nye was named to the senate foreign relations committee to replace the late Senator William Borah of Idaho, whose remains were escorted back home to Boise by 10 senators following state rites in Washington.

¶ As U. S.-Canadian conferences on the proposed St. Lawrence seaway were adjourned, congressmen from interested states (like Ohio, New York, Minnesota, Michigan and Wisconsin) began stirring up interest for an appropriation to build the deep sea channel.

TREND

How the wind is blowing . . .

AGRICULTURE—Mortgage-debt payments of 75,000 farmers holding land bank commissioner loans will be eased by a reamortization plan extending payments over longer periods. Cause: Henry Wallace's new full control over the farm credit administration.

CANADA—Instituting an economic embargo, Canada now forbids export of wheat, scrap iron, and steel ingots to countries adjacent to Germany (except by license), thus removing the danger of trans-shipment to the Reich. One result: Cancellation of a 1,250,000-bushel wheat shipment to Russia.

FREEDOM—National Labor Relations board ruled that constitutionally guaranteed free speech is not an absolute right. Case: Refusing Ford Motor company permission to distribute pamphlets criticizing NLRB and unions.

POLITICS:

Break

"I am convinced that, with the conditions now confronting the nation and dissatisfaction now permeating the minds of the people, his candidacy would result in ignominious defeat."

Thus, before his United Mine Workers convention at Columbus, did C. I. O. President John L. Lewis score Franklin Roosevelt. Since Mr. Lewis had already blasted at Candidates Garner and McNutt, this latest attack only heightened suspicions that C. I. O. will favor the Democratic candidacy of Montana's Sen. Burton K. Wheeler.

Next day he explained his speech. "I intended (it) to be a distinct jar to professional politicians in the Democratic and Republican parties. I intended it to serve notice that labor was not to be taken for granted."

But though John Lewis thought the New Deal had broken faith with labor, his mine workers did not necessarily agree. Introduced at the convention were at least 45 resolutions urging a third term for the President. Observers wondered whether this indicated a coming break in the strangle hold Mr. Lewis has held over his unionists.

JAPAN:

Treaty Lapses

In a single week the Tokyo government found its relations with two major nations approaching the crisis point. The English were persona non grata for having searched Japanese ships (see GREAT BRITAIN). The Americans were regarded disdainfully because abrogation of the 1911 trade pact went into effect, placing commercial relations between the two nations on a day-to-day basis.

Peace talks between U. S. Ambassador Joseph Drew and the Japanese foreign office were ended abruptly while Tokyo sat on its hands, hoping for the best. Obviously there was no chance for a new treaty in the near future, because state department had Japan right where it wanted her. If the present reprimand proved insufficient to make Nippon quit interfering with U. S. rights in the Orient, there still remained the highly potent embargo weapon.

Although the senate foreign relations committee indicated there was little chance for an embargo (which would hamstring Japan's war in China), there was plenty of pressure forthcoming from U. S. church groups. Why, they demanded righteously, should American scrap iron be used to kill Chinese?

THE WARS:

Russo-Finnish

Helsinki claimed 20,000 Soviet troops fell when the Finns repulsed Russia's strongest invasion of the war northeast of Lake Ladoga. Estimated Red casualties to date: 100,000. While foreign legionnaires swarmed into Finland from Scandinavia, the Baltic states, Hungary, the U. S. and elsewhere, the defenders still had no adequate defense against Soviet bombers, who enjoyed a field day strafing civilians in small mid-Finland towns.

Allied-German

Only four days after Britain's destroyer Grenville was torpedoed with a loss of 81 men, the destroyer Exmouth went down in the North sea carrying 175 crewmen to the bottom. It was her twenty-third acknowledged naval loss since the war began five months ago. On the western front, meanwhile, all was peaceful.

MISCELLANY:

Protest

In Rome the Fascist press complained that the liner Orazio, which burned at sea, might have reached Barcelona safely had it not been stopped by a French warship.

¶ At Berlin, under Adolf Hitler's direction, the pocket battleship Deutschland was renamed Luetzen after slipping home through the allied blockade. Its old name will go to one of Germany's new 35,000-ton battleships.

The gangsters steal both—and political machine leaders peddle the bull.

One thing that always surprises us is the number of people around Antioch who have beautiful snow-white hair. Either it's a place where folks can grow old gracefully—or else the rapid social pace ages 'em before their time. (And it's awe-inspiring how party-giving a town Antioch can be . . . and how many lodges and clubs to the square inch there are.)

We were in MariAnne's the other day and heard how a little girl had broken a window pane in a next-door neighbor's basement. The little girl was wishing said neighbor would hurry up and get home from an out-of-town visit on account of she (the little girl) thought she'd feel better if she knew what her punishment would be.

The other day we were sitting and staring at a map, and noticing how many odd names there were for places. There were Des Moines ("Of the Monks"); Kalamazoo (you try and tell us what that means); and Keokuk (ditto); Baton Rouge ("Red Stick"); Los Angeles ("The Angels"); Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, (City of Brotherly Love," in "Penn's Green Woods") and . . . oh, well, go get yourself a map and look at some more of them. You'll find Medicine Hat up in Canada, and Watersmeet over Michigan (we think it was Mich. we noticed it in—or was it Iowa?)—and scores of others, all very edifying. Up in Wisconsin they once had a contest to figure out which town had the prettiest name. They finally settled on Glenbeulah, with places like Milladore, Lomira, Wild Rose, Coria, Odanah and Eau Claire as runners-up. We hereby respectfully suggest that anyone with any nominations for Illinois send 'em in and we'll think about printing 'em . . . maybe.

There's a rumor going on that a modern 60-room hotel is going to be built in Antioch—"Have you heard about it?" one enthusiast enthused Monday a. m. in the Antioch News office. "I heard about it 10 years ago," yawned a blase citizen, "what I want to know is whether they're really going to do it." A hard man to convince.

Heard of a man the other day who bought a farm to raise hogs and paid for the farm with the money the government paid him for not raising hogs.

S. B. Nelson accumulated a useful fund of political information on his recent trip to the south, and brought it back with him.

Rescue Truck....

Mrs. Abshire was particularly interested in the new set of traction splints the squad has secured for use in cases where fractures have been suffered by accident victims, and which will permit them to be moved with a minimum of suffering or danger.

She also praised the completeness of the first aid kits carried by squad members, and the quality of the materials they contained.

Mrs. Abshire made her visit in company with Mayor Mancell Talcott of Waukegan, head of the Lake County Red Cross chapter. In a joint meeting with L. D. Powles, captain of the Antioch Rescue squad, Herman Holbek, lieutenant, and Mayor George B. Bartlett of Antioch, they discussed aims in the current Antioch and Waukegan campaigns for the purchase of trucks to be used for rescue squad work, and methods of co-operation between units in the western and eastern portions of the county.

Village to Co-operate
The Antioch village board will give all possible co-operation in the maintenance of such a truck, Mayor Bartlett stated.

The Antioch rescue squad is planning to add to its personnel as soon as more men can be trained, Powles and Holbek announced.

Herman Rosing, third member of the Antioch squad, and James Stearns, local fire chief and chairman of the rescue truck fund committee, were unable to be present because of business duties.

Japanese Synthetic Gas
Synthetic gasoline in Japan costs three times the market price of imported gasoline, says Industrial and Engineering Chemistry. The Japanese government subsidizes the synthetic product, the supply of which thus far does not exceed 10,000 gallons a month. Production is slated to be increased by 2,900 per cent within the next three years.

Service De Luxe by War Zone Waiters

Steel-hatted German soldiers, serving as waiters, make their cautious way through the woods near the front line "somewhere in Germany" carrying rations for the garrison of an advanced outpost.
